General Information

- Students assigned for detentions:
 - Detentions may be assigned by any faculty or administrator for discipline or academic purposes.
 - You must attend the entire time.
 - If you skip, you will have further discipline and also still have to serve this detention per the high school handbook guidelines.
- Students assigned for attendance make up:
 - You must attend the entire time.
 - You have the option of 1 reschedule if communicated ahead of time. This will be documented. If you skip a second time, there will be further discipline and you will also have to serve this detention per the high school handbook guidelines.
- Students electing to attend for academic support or test supervision:
 - It is up to you to communicate with your teachers if you need something sent to any of these supports. For example: If you have a math test to make-up, you need to let your math teacher know to send the test to the supervisors.
 - You may leave when your assignment is complete. You are not in there for discipline reasons, therefore you do not have to stay the entire time.
- Student attendance documentation:
 - Students will sign in and out.
 - All information is transferred over to a google doc shared by administration.
 - If you arrive late, or leave early, the exact time is documented for the entire school year.
 - Parents may call and ask if their child is attending, etc. at any time.
- No cell phones or electronic devices are allowed during these times.
